

Little bunnies Daycare, North Vancouver, Early Childhood Educator Position

We are seeking a dedicated, energetic Early Childhood Educator who is self motivated and has a genuine love for young children. Good English, leadership and organizational skills is a must, as is a love for the outdoors, nature, and familiarity with Emergent curriculum.

Position / Compensation

- Term: Full-Time & permanent (40 hours per week)
- Shift: Monday to Friday from 9 am to 5 pm
- Start date: from November 1st, 2018
- Starting wages: $18 per hour
- Benefits: Basic Extended Health Care / Dental after 3 months probation period plus 4% Vacation pay

Qualifications / Requirements:

- Valid Early Childhood Educator license to practice
- Current & Clear criminal record check
- 3 professional/ related references
- Valid First Aid Certificate
- A letter/ statement from a medical doctor
- Must have basic computer skills to record daily activity logs
- Experience is an asset

Duties:

- Be able to assist with the planning and implementation of a program that is educational and child-centered, including documenting each child's progress
- Is able to work productively with minimum supervision
- Provide excellent supervision and interaction with children at all times
- Establish and maintain positive daily communication with children and parents
- Be creative, very loving, resourceful, reliable, independent and a team player
- Is able to guide children with challenged behaviors and prepare report to parents
- Can recognize and understand child development stages
- Is fluent in English and has exceptional communication skills
- Is able to multi-task and be organized in a stressful environment
- Must be punctual and have no attendance issues

Interested applicants, please send resume, cover letter, 2 ECE-related references and a copy of certificates, indicating experience to applybunnies@gmail.com