

Introducing:

IELCC REGIONAL COMMUNITY
FACILITATOR (Vancouver Island)

Rachel West

BC Aboriginal Child Care Society (BCACCS)

Nurturing Excellence in Indigenous Early Learning and Child Care Since 1996

BCACCS offers training and resources designed to help Indigenous communities, parents, early childhood educators, and support staff enhance the services they provide for Indigenous children and families. Now, Rachel West, Regional Community Facilitator for Vancouver Island, is part of the team. She is available to support your community to access funding opportunities.

Rachel West is a proud mom of two teenagers, daughter Logan and son Haydn. They have built a life with their wonderful family of the We Wai Kai Nation on the Quinsam Reserve.

She graduated from Malaspina University-College in 1997 with her Early Childhood Education, Infant Toddler and Special Needs certificate. She has 20 plus years' overseeing Indigenous Early Childhood Programs on reserve.

Rachel is committed to supporting children and families in their early and formative years.
