

Introducing:

IELCC REGIONAL COMMUNITY
FACILITATOR (NORTH)

Tawni Davidson

BC Aboriginal Child Care Society (BCACCS)

Nurturing Excellence in Indigenous Early Learning and Child Care Since 1996

BCACCS offers training and resources designed to help Indigenous communities, parents, early childhood educators, and support staff enhance the services they provide for Indigenous children and families. Now, Tawni Davidson, Regional Community Facilitator for the North, is part of the team. She is available to support your community access funding opportunities.

Tawni Davidson (K'uuga sta xuuga) lives on Haida Gwaii. She is a mother and stepmother to five children. She loves to be outside on the beaches or on the water fishing. Tawni has experience developing and delivering programs for both parents and children in the school district elementary and high schools on Haida Gwaii. She has organized professional development for early childhood educators and was a contributor to the BC Early Learning Framework. Tawni believes in the importance of revitalizing Indigenous languages and supervised the Xaayda Kil Language Nest funded by First Peoples' Cultural Council. Her passion is working with families and children to support their needs.
