Psychiatric Social Worker $73,855.42 - $84,134.34 annually plus 4 Grid Temporary Market Adjustment

The Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) promotes and develops the capacity of families and communities to care for and protect vulnerable children and youth. The ministry is responsible for regional and province-wide delivery of services and programs that support positive and healthy outcomes for children, youth and their families.

The Psychiatric Social Worker provides direct clinical services such as assessment and treatment for youth and their families. Consulting with community agencies, schools, hospitals and other ministry programs, you understand the importance of being involved in community education, development and coordination. You build and maintain relationships with a wide variety of stakeholders in the community to ensure continuity of care and support for youth and families.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Masters' in Social Work (preferred Clinical Specialization), Educational Counselling, Clinical Psychology or Child and Youth Care or comparable graduate degree at the Master's level, or equivalent.
 - NOTE: If your degree was obtained outside of Canada, you need to confirm it has been assessed for equivalency through the International Credential Evaluation Services (ICES). You must provide a basic report by the closing date of this posting to be considered.
- Minimum of one (1) year full-time equivalent experience working with children and youth and their families, with responsibility for providing a wide range of community based mental health services.
- Must possess and maintain a valid class 5 BC Driver's license with no restriction or equivalent (i.e. from another Canadian Province).
