

Where ideas work

Ministry of Children and Family Development Multiple Locations (Hybrid)

Flexible work options are available; this position may be able to work up to one (1) day at home per week subject to an approved telework agreement

Indigenous Outreach Worker $67,728.87 - $77,012.22 annually

Be a part of a dedicated team who is passionate about achieving our vision of an inclusive and supportive community where children, youth and their families thrive!

As an Indigenous Mental Health Outreach Worker, you provide specialized mental health assessment and treatment services to Indigenous children, youth and their families. Specialized services also include community development, consultation, co-ordination, education and contract management in regard to child and youth mental health.

Under the direct clinical supervision of a Mental Health Team Leader and as appropriate, the clinical direction of a qualified CYMH clinician, works as a member of a multi-disciplinary Mental Health Team in a number of communities.

This is your opportunity to work with families facing difficult challenges and help make a difference.

Qualifications for this role include:

- BSW, BA (Psychology), Bachelor's degree in Child and Youth Care, Registered Nurse, Registered Psychiatric Nurse or comparable degree at Bachelors level, OR
- Diploma in Nursing or Psychiatric Nursing PLUS 2 years of relevant experience
- Experience providing child & youth mental health services.
- Experience providing outreach services.
- Experience facilitating groups for adolescents

Preferences may be given to applicants who:

- Self-identifies as First Nations, Métis or Inuit with the required combination of education and experience.
- Have extensive experience with Indigenous communities.

For more information and to apply online by November 9, 2023, please go to:

<https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/106374>